GENERAL INFORMATION

The J. F. Drake State Technical College Scholarship is a tuition assistance program. Scholarships may be retained for the duration of a program provided all other requirements are met. The evaluation committee will determine the type of scholarship the recipient will receive.

REQUIREMENTS:

1. All scholarship recipients must be enrolled for a minimum of 12 credit hours per semester.

2. All Scholarship recipients must maintain a minimum overall G.P.A. of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale for academic or at least 2.5 on a 4.0 scale for leadership.

Scholarship funds may be used during the summer session provided the recipient enrolls for 12 credit hours.

Once final grades have been validated and affixed to the high school transcript, along with the graduation date, students must request an official copy to be sent to Drake State.

Recipients who continue to meet minimum requirements after the first two semesters are eligible for scholarship renewal.

APPLICATION PRIORITY DEADLINE:
MARCH 15 (Fall & Summer)
October 15 (Spring)

NOTE TO APPLICANTS: It is imperative that all items (front and back) be completed for proper awarding of scholarships. Please type or print using black ink only.
